

I. List and give the English meaning of the Latin words capture by the acronym UNUS NAUTA. List the demonstrative adjectives that follow the same paradigm. Give their English meaning.

II. Translate into Latin into English and English into Latin.

A. Huic fortī rēgīnae sunt duae pulchrae fīliae. Mens alterius est ferox. Mens alterius est mītis.
mītis, mīte - gentle

B. Uter duōrum cōnsulum rem Rōmānam maiore cum arte geret. Multī cīvēs utrumque paucōs mensēs laudābunt sed neuter est vir virtūtis magnaē. maior, maius - greater laudo (1) to praise consul, consulis (m)

C. Alius aliā ex nāve desilit. Alī in aquam nunc cadunt, alī prope lītus iam stant.
saliō, salīre - to jump cado, cadere - to fall prope + acc. = near

D. This consul alone will lead us into another war with no hope of victory. But the other will seek peace for all citizens with/in good faith within a few days without any help of the gods. fides, fidei (f) spes, spei (f) victoria, -ae (f) peto, petere pāx, pācis (f) auxilium, auxiliī (n) help

E. On account of the rage of one man Jupiter himself threw three lightning-bolts at/toward his own tree at the same time. ob + acc furia, furiae (f) rage Iuppiter, Iovis (m) fulmen, fulminis (n) arbor, arboris (f)

